

Hilton®

BOSTON PARK PLAZA

A wicked cool guide to

Boston

Welcome to the City of Champions

Boston's legacy may be centuries old, but the city is constantly reinventing itself. The same spirit that once ignited a revolution continues to shape its culture today, found in its bold creativity, thriving dining scene, and world-class experiences year-round.

Beyond the landmarks, Boston's neighborhoods pulse with diversity and character. Festivals, public art, and global flavors mingle with unmistakable New England charm, creating a city that feels both timeless and new.

We invite you to experience Boston as it is today - vibrant, welcoming, and endlessly inspiring. There's always more to discover in a city that's still making history.

Hilton
BOSTON PARK PLAZA

Back Bay

The Back Bay centers around bustling Copley Square, home to Trinity Church, the Boston Public Library, cultural festivals, and farmers' markets. Visit Newbury Street, where shoppers can wander art galleries and designer boutiques while enjoying sidewalk cafes. Beautiful brownstones line the neighborhood's residential streets, and visitors are encouraged to stroll Commonwealth Avenue to view monuments honoring many of Boston's greatest citizens.

Where to eat

Bistro du Midi

272 Boylston Street
(617) 426-7878

Bistro du Midi showcases modern Provencal cuisine in a warm, welcoming, and beautiful setting

Davio's - Back Bay

75 Arlington Street
(617) 357-4810

A local favorite, this upscale Northern Italian steakhouse prepares the finest and freshest Italian cuisine.

Saltie Girl

279 Dartmouth Street
(617) 267-0691

Saltie martinis, fresh oysters, warm lobster rolls, and an outdoor patio.

What to do

Boston Public Library

700 Boylston Street
(617) 536-5400
America's first public library serving the city of Boston since 1848.

View Boston

800 Boylston Street
(617) 544-3535
A 360° taste of the city offering breathtaking indoor and outdoor views atop one of the tallest buildings in New England.

Newbury Street

Stretching from Arlington St. to Massachusetts Ave
(617) 266 1991
A mile-long stretch of luxury boutiques, shops, art galleries and incredible restaurants.

Beacon Hill

Beacon Hill is a charming half-square-mile neighborhood replete with Federalist Era architecture and topped by the gleaming gold dome of the State House. The neighborhood features elegant townhouses, narrow streets with brick sidewalks and gas lamps, local boutiques, and popular restaurants. Beacon Hill is home to the Museum of African American History and many historical landmarks, including the African Meeting House.

Where to eat

75 Chestnut

75 Chestnut Street
(617) 227-2175

75 Chestnut provides regional American comfort food in a truly captivating bistro-like setting.

Toscano

47 Charles Street
(617) 723-4090

Tuscan specialties including pasta, pizza & risotto in a rustic, refined ambiance.

Mooo.... Restaurant

15 Beacon Street
(617) 670-2515
From chef/owner Jamie Mammano, Moo...is an upscale steakhouse serving classic fare.

What to Do

Charles Street

65 - 170 Charles Street
A charming street in Beacon Hill, known for its upscale boutiques, antique shops, and cafes. Although it's only a third of a mile long, there is so much to explore.

Cheers Boston

84 Beacon Street
(617) 227-9605
The inspiration for the setting of the TV series Cheers, offers a menu of traditional pub fare.

The Boston Common & Public Garden

139 Tremont Street
(617) 635-4505
Founded in 1634, explore the beautifully maintained oldest city park in the U.S.

Hilton
BOSTON PARK PLAZA

North End

With dozens of eateries serving homemade pasta, fresh-baked bread, and cappuccinos, the North End is infused with the flavor of its rich Italian history. Colonial-era sites are located throughout Boston's oldest residential neighborhood, including Paul Revere's house, the Old North Church, and Copp's Hill Burying Ground. Don't forget to participate in one of Boston's oldest rivalries, by trying a cannoli from Modern Pastry and Mike's Pastry, and picking a favorite.

Where to eat

Regina Pizzeria

11 1/2 Thacher Street
(617) 227-0765

Boston's original Pizzeria has been serving delicious brick oven pizza, since 1926.

Bricco

241 Hanover Street
(617) 248-6800

Sophisticated spot for modern takes on Italian fare, cocktails & late-night brick-oven pizza.

Piccolo Nido

257 North Street
(617) 742-4272

Charming eatery dishes up hearty portions of homestyle Italian dishes in a rustic, cozy setting.

What to do

Paul Revere House

19 North Square
(617) 523-2338

The original home to the famed patriot - Paul Revere. Step back in time to explore the life of a historic figure.

Old North Church & Historic Site

193 Salem Street
(617) 523-6676

No trip to Boston is complete without a visit to the Old North Church, an icon of the American Revolution!

Improv Asylum

216 Hanover Street
(617) 544-3535

A comedy theater that features improvisation and sketch comedy shows six days a week.

Fenway & Kenmore

While this neighborhood may best be known as the home of the Red Sox and Fenway Park, it is also one of Boston's academic and cultural hubs. Fenway and Kenmore are known for their strong academic presence, including Boston Latin School, America's first public school, and several institutions of higher learning. Nearly a dozen of the 100 colleges and universities located in Greater Boston can be found here, giving the neighborhood an unmistakably energetic feel.

Where to eat

Sweet Cheeks Q

1381 Boylston Street
(617) 266-1300

BBQ trays, Southern sides & inspired cocktails served at family-style tables in a welcoming space.

Citizen Public House & Oyster Bar

1310 Boylston Street
(617) 450-9000

A modern tavern offering a fresh twist on traditional cuisine, and a selection of over 350 whiskeys.

Time Out Market Boston

401 Park Drive
(978) 393-8088

A curated dining destination with 15 eateries, two bars, and a huge patio.

What to Do

Fenway Park

19 Yawkey Way
(617) 226-6666

Visit "America's Most Beloved Ballpark" and catch a game or go for a tour.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

25 Evans Way
(617) 566-1401

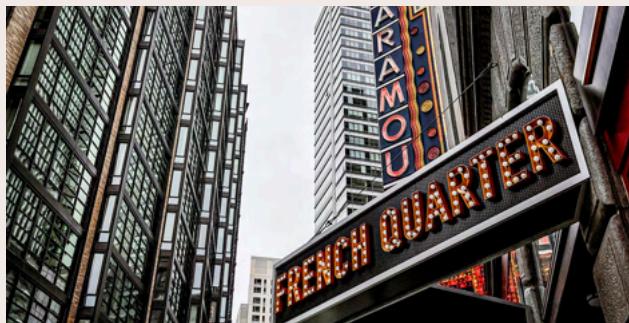

The Venetian Renaissance architecture houses one of the world's most remarkable art collections.

Citizens House of Blues

15 Lansdowne Street
(888) 693-2583

The premiere home for live music, folk art and Southern-inspired food.

Hilton
BOSTON PARK PLAZA

Theater District

Boston's Theater District hosts an endless array of Broadway shows. Productions at the Citizens Bank Opera House, the Boch Center, and the Charles Playhouse attract audiences of all ages. The area is also home to dozens of restaurants and bars offering fare at a wide range of prices. From Chinese and Thai to upscale contemporary American cuisine, the area is the ideal place for pre-show dining.

Where to eat

haley.henry

45 Province Street
(617) 208-6000

Stylish, intimate wine bar with light menu of cheese, crudo & imported varieties of tinned fish.

jm Curley

21 Temple Place
(617) 338-5333

Eatery specializing in innovative American comfort food, craft cocktails, and local beers.

Q Restaurant

660 Washington Street
(857) 350-3968

Known for their Mongolian hot pot, though they serve a selection of classic Chinese and Japanese dishes.

What to do

Boch Center Wang Theatre

270 Tremont Street
(617) 482-9393
Opened in 1925, a premier venue for dance performances, Broadway shows, theatre, and music.

Citizens Bank Opera House

539 Washington Street
(617) 695-6955
Opened in 1928, it's home to a plethora of award-winning theatrical performances from around the world.

Emerson Colonial Theater

106 Boylston Street
(888) 616-0272
Opened in 1900, the Victorian theater hosts touring Broadway shows and other significant productions.

Seaport

The fastest growing and newest neighborhood in Boston, the Seaport District is part of the Port of Boston on Boston Harbor. The Seaport District is home to The Menino Convention and Exhibition Center, the Institute of Contemporary Art, and the John Joseph Moakley United States Courthouse. This area has seen extraordinary growth in commercial buildings, new restaurants, and residential buildings.

Where to eat

Committee

50 Northern Avenue
(617) 737-5051

Serving Greek Meze & craft cocktails, inspired by the modern-day "ouzeri" found throughout Greece.

Legal Sea Foods - Harborside

270 Northern Avenue
(617) 477-2900
A casual menu of seafood favorites with a twist, an oyster bar, and stunning water views.

Grace by Nia

60 Seaport Boulevard
(617) 927-9411
Modern nightspot with a soul-food menu, plus live jazz and soul music, and a cocktail lounge.

What to Do

Harborwalk

1 Courthouse Way
A near-continuous, 43-mile linear park along Boston's shoreline, the Harborwalk connects Boston's waterfront neighborhoods to Boston Harbor.

Institute of Contemporary Art (ICA)

25 Harbor Shore Drive
(617) 478-3100
The museum's variety of exhibitions, performances, and programs highlights contemporary art and artists.

Boston Tea Party Museum

306 Congress Street
(617) 338-1773
A floating history museum with live reenactments, multimedia exhibits & a tearoom.

Hilton
BOSTON PARK PLAZA

Off Site Venues & Activities

Enhance your Boston event experience with a selection of the city's premier off-site venues, each offering a distinctive backdrop for group dinners, receptions, and entertainment. From historic landmarks and waterfront spaces to modern lounges and cultural institutions, Boston's vibrant venue scene provides endless possibilities for memorable gatherings. Whether you're planning an elegant evening at a museum, a lively celebration overlooking the harbor, our team can connect you with trusted partners and unique spaces that perfectly complement your event at the hotel.

Venues

Boston Public Library

700 Boylston Street

(617) 536-5400

Established in 1848, the Boston Public Library is one of the most unique and historic event venues.

View Boston

800 Boylston Street

(617) 544-3535

A 360-degree observation deck offering breathtaking and orienting views from high above.

Fenway Park

4 Jersey Street

(617) 226-6791

Suited for more than baseball, America's most beloved ballpark has space for gatherings from 20 - 20,000.

Activities

Flight Club

60 Seaport Boulevard

(617) 855-9888

Fast-paced games and craft cocktails, Flight Club is a unique team-bonding experience.

Boston Harbor City Cruises

20 Custom House Street

(617) 742-8677

Exciting cruise options include Whale Watching, Sightseeing, Lighthouse, and Sunset Cruises.

Full Swing Golf Suites at Lynx Fitness Club

64 Arlington Street (at Hilton Boston Park Plaza)

(857) 990-3785

The premier golf simulator used by the professionals, with 50 iconic courses, practice areas and game modes for all skills levels.

Hilton
BOSTON PARK PLAZA

The Sports Capital

Experience the thrill of Boston's legendary sports scene, where passion and tradition run deep. Just minutes from the hotel, guests can catch the action at TD Garden, home to our professional basketball and hockey teams, or enjoy a classic ballgame at Fenway Park, the iconic home of our professional baseball team. Regardless of which season it is in the sports world, there's always a game to cheer for, and an unforgettable atmosphere to soak in. With world-class teams, energetic fans, and venues rich in history, Boston offers the perfect setting for group outings or team-building experiences that capture the true spirit of the city.

- 10 minutes to Fenway Park - home of the Boston Red Sox
- 10 minutes to TD Garden - home of the Boston Celtics and Boston Bruins
- 45 minutes to Gillette Stadium - home of the New England Patriots and New England Revolution

Uncover the Stories Behind the City

Discover the best of Boston with a variety of guided tours that bring the city's rich history, culture, and charm to life. Whether you're exploring from land or water, these experiences offer the perfect way for groups to see the sights and make lasting memories. Step aboard the Old Town Trolley Tours for a hop-on, hop-off journey through Boston's most iconic neighborhoods, or cruise the streets and the Charles River aboard the famous Boston Duck Tours. Walk in the footsteps of American revolutionaries with a Freedom Trail Tour, or take in panoramic city views from the top deck of a Boston Sightseeing Double-Decker Bus Tour. Each experience offers a fun and engaging way to see the city, ideal for team outings, incentive trips, or pre- and post-event adventures.

---

Old Town Trolley Tours

2 1/2 Park Plaza

(855) 396-7433

Turn back the pages of history and relive the bustling seaport days of Boston, with 18 informative tour stops.

Boston Duck Tours

53 Huntington Avenue

(617) 267-DUCK

Hop aboard Boston Duck Tours and enjoy a fully narrated, historic tour of Boston in a "DUCK", a W.W.II style amphibious landing craft that travels on land and water.

Freedom Trail Tours

139 Tremont Street

(617) 357-8300

The Freedom Trail Foundation's most popular tour highlights the revolutionary history that took place at 11 of the 16 official Freedom Trail historic sites.

Boston Sightseeing

8 Park Plaza

(857) 234-3375

Experience sightseeing in Boston with a double-decker bus, and 15 historic stops.

Hilton
BOSTON PARK PLAZA

Accessible to the world

Ideally located in the heart of Boston, Hilton Boston Park Plaza places you within easy reach of the city and beyond. Just a short drive from Boston Logan International Airport, the hotel is also minutes from Boston's major train stations, including Back Bay and South Station, making arrivals and departures seamless for both local and international travelers. For exploring the city, the Arlington Station stop on the MBTA Green Line is less than one block away, offering quick access to Boston's iconic neighborhoods, historic landmarks, and waterfront attractions. Wherever your plans take you, getting there couldn't be more convenient.

Train

Back Bay Station
Amtrak | 0.6 miles - 10 minute walk

South Station
Amtrak | 0.8 miles - 15 minute walk

Airport Access

Boston Logan Airport
BOS | 3.6 miles - 15 minutes by car

Nonstop Domestic and International Flights

Car

Valet Parking
Located at 34 Columbus Avenue

Self Parking
Located at Motor Mart Garage
201 Stuart Street

Stay on top of your routine

At Hilton Boston Park Plaza, wellness is more than a routine, it's a way of life. Guests enjoy complimentary access to Lynx Fitness Club, a 20,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art facility featuring personal training, group fitness classes, relaxing saunas, and an immersive Full Swing Golf Suite. Just outside the hotel doors, Boston offers countless ways to stay active and inspired. The Charles River Esplanade, a favorite among local runners, provides scenic views and a serene escape for a morning jog, while the city's lush parks invite leisurely walks amid beautifully maintained green spaces.

For those who prefer to take to the water, sailing and kayaking along the Charles River offer invigorating alternatives to traditional workouts. Whether you're keeping up with your fitness goals or seeking a refreshing new way to unwind, wellness comes naturally, both within and just steps beyond the hotel.

A global center for higher learning

Renowned as one of the world's foremost centers for education, Boston is home to an unparalleled concentration of academic excellence. With more than 85 colleges and universities in the Greater Boston area and over 360,000 students enrolled, the city thrives on curiosity, innovation, and discovery. More than half of Boston's residents hold a bachelor's degree or higher, a testament to the city's culture of learning and ambition.

School	Distance
Emerson College	0.3 miles
Suffolk University	0.7 miles
Berklee College of Music	1.1 miles
Northeastern University	1.1 miles
Boston University	1.6 miles
Wentworth Institute of Technology	1.7 miles
Massachusetts Institute of Technology	1.8 miles
Simmons University	1.9 miles
Harvard University	3.1 miles
Boston College	5.3 miles
Tufts University	6.4 miles

Where it all started

Few cities tell America's story quite like Boston. Founded in 1630, this coastal capital has been the stage for revolution, innovation, and cultural transformation for nearly four centuries. From the stirring ideals that shaped a nation to the creativity and discovery that continue to define it, Boston's past and present are deeply intertwined. Around every corner, you'll find echoes of the people, moments, and movements that have left their mark on the city, and on history itself.

Boston is home to many firsts: the nation's first university, public park, transit system, and public library, as well as the birthplace of the telephone, anesthesia, and countless modern innovations.

Beyond its well-known names from Hancock to Kennedy, Boston has inspired transformative figures like Martin Luther King Jr., who earned his PhD at Boston University, to Henry David Thoreau and Edgar Allan Poe who formed a society club which influenced the future of American literature.

Today, Boston continues to evolve, from bustling Seaport to Kendall Square, a hub of global innovation. Known as "The Hub" and "The Athens of America," Boston remains a city where ideas thrive and history is always in the making.

Boston. Never. Gets. Old.

Boston moves with the rhythm of the seasons, each one transforming the city in its own beautiful way.

In spring, the parks and greenways burst to life, from the Boston Common to the Rose Kennedy Greenway, as blossoms and fresh greenery signal the city's renewal. Summer brings lively energy to Faneuil Hall Marketplace and the waterfront, where outdoor dining and street performances fill the air with excitement. Autumn paints the Freedom Trail and Boston's tree-lined neighborhoods in brilliant shades of gold and crimson. And when winter arrives, Beacon Hill's cobblestone streets glow under lamplight, creating a scene straight from a storybook.

The holiday season sparkles with festive markets, joyful celebrations, and some of the best shopping in New England.

No matter when you visit, Boston reveals a new side of itself, timeless yet ever-changing, and always ready to be rediscovered.

Hilton
BOSTON PARK PLAZA

Hilton Boston Park Plaza

Located in the heart of Boston

hiltonbostonparkplaza.com
50 Park Plaza Boston, MA 02116
+1 617-426-2000
bossr-salesadm@hilton.com

Hilton®
BOSTON PARK PLAZA